A second email went out to the membership. It was asked whether we will have an activity like bingo to exchange gifts or something. It was decided those attending the Christmas party should bring an item to donate to the Humane Society. We may be able to get a little publicity out of it (maybe). Andi will send details to Rose so she can send an email to notify all members.

Show and Obedience/Rally Trials: Held September 11 & 12, 2021

- Sue Webber reported Jerry Sulewski and she worked together and had a panel of conformation judges picked out, but that everyone declined.
- It was commented that judges' travel will be costly. The judges cost us $8,800 this year.
- Someone asked if we lost money on the show, and Barb Powers reported that we lost probably close to $3,000.
- It was asked whether Jerry had checked with BaRay yet, and no one knew.
- Rose Gottung commented that Jerry Sulewski and Sue Webber should be including Cheryl Hoerman in decisions being made concerning our 2022 show and keep her apprised of whatever decisions have already been made, since she has stepped forward to be the Chair.

Sunshine: Karen Strassburger reported she sent a card to Brenda Blume (illness).

Website: No report.

Unfinished Business:

- Scent Work: Rose Gottung reported she did not have time yet to look at the AKC Events Calendar to determine some available weekends next year. John Crotteau suggested a cost analysis be done. Rose further reported we need to explore potential sites.
- Fast CAT Event in 2022: Rose Gottung reported she sent an email today to Bill Walker, a lure operator from Roscoe Illinois, located between Beloit and Rockford, whose name was given to her by Kim who helped us at the trials. Rose asked him if he might have a list of available weekends and cost estimate for what he provides as a lure operator, and she is waiting for his response.

New Business: None

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 7:51 PM.
