Show/Obedience Trials: The 2022 show weekend is September 10 and 11.

- Brenda Blume noted we will have two $20 gift/gas cards for a worker raffle each day.
- Brenda and Rose are securing stewards.

- It was decided a conformation steward training session will not be held since those that are stewarding have done so before.
- Lunch was discussed. Barb Powers noted the food organizer for the Merrill Area Youth Hockey Association wants to do tickets this year.
- Marv reported he checked into rental of a golf cart, and it would be $80 per day plus $200 for loading and unloading if needed.
- Karen Strassburger commented that she sent many letters to potential vendors but no one responded.

Sunshine: Karen Strassburger reported she sent a card to Cherilyn Hoerman (death of dog, Mable).

Website: No report.

Nominating Committee: Eight members must be nominated, and then five members shall be elected by the members present. Members nominated were Paula Crotteau, Gary Jakobi, Andi Baltes, Sharon Jagodzinski, Karen Strassburger, John Crotteau, Rose Gottung and Sue Webber. Election by paper ballot resulted in the following members: Sharon Jagodzinski (chair based on receiving the most votes), Karen Strassburger, Paula Crotteau, Andi Baltes and Gary Jakobi.

Unfinished Business:

Club Shirts: An email was sent to the membership with all the details regarding shirts, and Barb Powers brought a couple shirts as samples.

New Business:

Brenda Blume reported that The Women's Community was planning their SafeFur Homes Dog Walk Festival for October 1, but it has been moved to Oak Island and only runs from 9-11 AM. Brenda informed them that the club will not be participating this year.

Thanks to Marv and Karen Strassburger for bringing treats to the meeting. Rose volunteered to bring treats to the September meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:06 PM.
